The Right Choice for Your Big Day

INTRODUCTION

Kounty Kitchen is a member of Kounty Events Enterprises, a standard event planning company in Nigeria registered under the Corporate Affairs Commission with a zeal for excellence and a knack for high quality service delivery. Our speciality is in creating events with style fashioned after uniqueness and excellence via consistent delivery of professional and first-rate services.

Our mission is to add value and fulfil dreams by combining effective workforce, creativity, technology, customer service and talent to offer our clients unparalleled service when in culinary arts.

Our vision, which is to create an environment that meets human needs at every aspect and level from basic to complex, is what keeps us going to ease the tense associated with events.

Kounty Kitchen can expertly cater your special event, from weddings and corporate functions to more intimate gatherings. We turn any catering event into an experience to remember with our outstanding staff and delicious food.

We provide the ultimate solutions for every form of event, from design through planning, to production and execution. We are dedicated to style and luxury and as a result, we have dazzled a lot of clients.

Our company boasts a creative team of professionals, all talented experts in their field and plays their part in bringing the most inspiring events to life. We provide a unique and elegant experience that best fits you. We customize a service to meet your budget, and exceed your expectations.

Having catered for several special events, we know what your guests need and what will make you happy. We have been able to create events that are exact replicas of the picture in minds of our clients. And with our special magic wand effect, we are known for re-enacting in reality, dream events. You paint the picture; we will make it happen.
